

6 Success Steps to find your Next Job

1. Make sure that you have a well written Resume Prepared - chronological or by skills – that is modified to fit the job description.
2. Dress for Success – First Appearances count
3. Prepare your resume with Success statements, telling about different situations in your last job, what actions that you took to achieve your goals and what the results were
4. Research the Industry that you are interested in. Research the company before your next interview.
5. Network with colleagues, clients, people in your industry; Network on LinkedIn.
6. Practice for your next interview; communicate with passion why you want the job.